

When... If... Every Time

Look at the sentences below. Rewrite them as a story, using other connectors, such as if, whenever, or every time.

When it is sunny, I go to the beach.

When I go to the beach, I take a book.

When I take a book to the beach, I need sunglasses to read.

When I read at the beach, I get sleepy.

When I get sleepy, I fall asleep in the sun.

When I fall asleep in the sun, I drop my book in the sand.

When I drop my book in the sand, I lose my place.

When I lose my place, I give up and go swimming instead!
